

Clifty Falls State Park September 16-30, 2009

Nature Center open daily 9am-4pm EDT unless otherwise posted. GPS: N 38° 44.682 W 085° 25.163

Children under 13 must be accompanied by an adult. • Pets not allowed on hikes unless stated. For more information phone 812-273-0609.

Darrell Skinner, Property Mgr; Karen Hinton; Inn Mgr. Richard Davis, Hannah Milano, Zach Jones: Nature Center Staff

Volunteer Staff: Marie Pittman, Nature Center Hostess; Dave & Betty Forkert, Campground Hosts (Site 10) ~ For more information visit www.IN.gov/dnr/parklake.

Monday, September 14

2pm Critter Feedin' Time! Enjoy feeding time at the Nature Center! Yum, yum, eat'em up!

Tuesday, September 15

2pm Wooly Worm Weather! Will autumn be cool and wet or warm and dry? Get our best folklore forecast ... with or without the wooly worms! At the Center!

Welcome TRIRI Bikers To Clifty Falls State Park Clifty Inn, and Jefferson County!

Wednesday, September 16

10am Wildflower Ways! Goldenrod and ironweed lighten the load as we walk you down the flower road; departs from Nature Center!

Thursday, September 17

10am Vulture Watch! Discover what makes vultures so fantastic! Easy walk meets at the Center.

Friday, September 18

6pm The Camp Naturalist! Greetings with "good to know" info!

Saturday, September 19

9am Your Best Bird Hike! Enjoy fall colors of songbirds! We'll discuss the latest birding aids, binoculars and field guides. Relaxing walk meets at the Nature Center!

1pm Tree Stand Basics! This staple tool of hunting offers great opportunities for birders, nature enthusiasts and hunters alike. Join Zach at the Nature Center for the possibilities of tree stands.
2pm Too Cool Dinosaur Egg Hunt! A nature game for the kids... search for ancient ~ delicious dinosaur eggs! Fun takes place at the Nature Center!

Monarch butterflies fly south ahead of autumn frosts. Watch their movement!

Summer's Ending!

Sunday, September 20
Ask about the Quest Program!
1pm Snakes Holes and Other Stories! Facts and fancy about the cold-blooded critters that are getting set to snooze through winter. At the Nature Center.

Monday, September 21
2pm Critter Feedin' Time! Enjoy feeding time at the Nature Center! Mmmmm good Opy!

Autumn Equinox!

Tuesday, September 22
Nature Center closed today.
5:18pm Autumn Begins! The sun passes out of the northern sky, over the Equator into the southern sky. Autumn begins!

Wednesday September 23

Nature Center closed today. Savor a quiet walk through Clifty's upland woods as autumn settles in.

Thursday, September 24

10am A Fascination w/Monarchs! See first hand and learn about the amazing monarch butterfly life cycle at the Nature Center.

Friday, September 25

Early fall colors begin to tint the landscape. Watch for shimmering reds washing into black gum trees!

Madison Chautauqua Festival of Art Weekend! Join Us!

Saturday, September 26
8am KDH/Clifty Falls 5K Walk/Run 5K Walk/Run with Madison King's Daughters Hospital. Scenic and moderate park road course. 3.2 miles. Fee required. Meet early at park swimming pool.

Saturday September 23 cont.

2pm Catch & Keep Fall Colors! Nature craft kid's love! Family fun meets at the Nature Center.

Sunday, September 27

Ask about Indiana State Parks and Reservoir's Hoosier Quest program... at the Center!
2pm Snakes Alive! Get acquainted with our resident sssnakes! Mercy! Takes place at the Nature Center! At the park Nature Center.

Monday, September 28

Help feed the Nature Center turtles. "Yum, yum!"... the turtles.

Tuesday, September 29

Red, red cardinals at arm's length on the Center's feeding windows!

Wednesday, September 30

2pm WW & Persimmon Seed Winter Weather Forecast! We've waited all summer for this! Join us for the WW & PSWWF prognostications! Be sure to be here for it! At the Center!